Introduction of Devichitrlekha ji

A Great Divine Soul, Devi Chitrlekha Ji, was born to a pious Brahmin family on 19th of January 1997, in the village of Khambi which is in the vicinity of Brajbhoomi in the district of Palwal-Haryana, India. At the tender age of 4, Deviji was given Diksha Initiation by a great Bengali Saint Shri Shri GiriDhari Ji Maharaj. Like many other saints, Deviji, at the age of 7 started preaching the Shrimad Bhagwat and doing Sankirtans widely. Deviji has completely dedicated her life to serving "Gau Mata" (Holy Mother Cow), who was the greatest Love of Lord Shri Krishna. Since childhood, her dedication for such pious work, led Deviji to establish a Gau Seva Dham Hospital and Research Centre for the service of Gau Mata. In order to achieve her childhood dream of serving Gau Mata, Deviji has been giving Bhagwat Katha and doing Sankirtans for the last 14 years.

॥ गांवो विश्वस्य मातरः, मातर सर्व भूतानां, गावः सर्व सुखप्रदाः ॥

From ancient times, "GauMata" has made a significant contribution to human civilisation. According to the Vedas, Upanishads and Puranas, it is stated that the Cow is the Mother of all creatures. The glory of GauMata is described in the Indian scriptures. One of the most important reasons is that, the cows have been the backbone of Indian families and the Indian agricultural system ever since the dawn of Hindu civilisation. It is an Indian mythological belief that GauMata is the abode of 33 koti Deities. The word "Gau" in India is a symbol of faith, purity, reverence and religious culture. That's why many sacred words such as Govardhan, Gopal, Gaumukh, Gautam, Gokul and so on begin with the word "Gau".

OBJECTIVES OF "GAU-SEVA DHAM"

- Pick up injured cattle by ambulance, hospitalise them and provide appropriate treatment for their wellbeing.
- Provide complete care to old and wandering cows.
- Provide medical treatment to seriously wounded and sick cows.
- Encourage people to protect and save the Holy Cow.
- Rescue the cows before being taken to the slaughter houses and rehabilitate them.
- Create awareness of the benefits of cow's milk, butter, curd and ghee and also the importance of being a vegetarian.

The Supreme personality of Godhead Lord Krishna advises on Gau protection in His teaching of Bhagavad Gita. Cows are very dear to Lord Krishna, that is why Lord Krishna is also called Gopal, which means the Saviour of the cows. The milk and milk products have innumerable benefits. It is used in the performance of Yagna (sacrifices – described in the Vedas). Besides this they also have medical, agricultural and industrial benefits.

Being a Hindu or a human being, it is our first and foremost duty to serve our Gaumata. So it is our humble appeal to all cow and Lord Krishna's lovers to join hands in the protection and welfare of the cow (Symbol of the Hindu Civilisation). Those who are capable of helping physically or financially please come forward to do this pious work because respect to our Gaumata is indeed our self-respect and the respect of the Nation as well.
